Part III, line 1a:

The Society of Four Arts collection includes paintings, sculptures, graphics, ceramics, furniture, and other items. In conformity with the practices followed by many museums, collection items which are (a) held for public exhibition and education; (b) protected, cared for and preserved; and (c) subject to a policy designating the proceeds from any sales of collection items to acquiring or preserving other collections, are not capitalized and are not reported in the statement of financial position.

The Society has developed policies for the stewardship of the collection following the guidelines of the American Association of Museums. To be considered for the collection, the item should be related to the collection as it now exists, the item should be high quality, and the item must be appropriate to the existing body of work in the area to be placed. The Society also considers the special requirements for storage and exhibition. If the item is to be donated, the donor shall also be willing to make an unrestricted gift.

To be considered for sale, the Society must determine it is unable to properly care for the object, or it is determined there is a marked discrepancy between the cost of the conservation and the aesthetic, historical, or financial value of the object. Objects of markedly inferior quality, either intrinsically or relatively, in comparison with other objects of the same type in the collection, may be considered for sale. Also, objects now determined to lack relevance to the collection may be considered for sale. In any sale or disposal of collections items, the appropriate level of approval must be obtained and the proceeds from the sale are designated for acquisition or direct care of the collection.

The fair value of the collection objects acquired by gift for which the Society can make a reasonable estimate or obtain appraisals are not reported as contribution revenue in the statement of activities because the collection is not capitalized.

Proceeds from the sale of collection items, if any, are reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets.

open to, and for public exhibition, seven days a week.

Part X, Line 2:

The Society adopted FASB ASC 740-10, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes". This pronouncement seeks to reduce the diversity in practice associated with certain aspects of measurement and recognition in accounting for income taxes. It prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position which an entity takes or expects to take in a tax return. An entity may only recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold. The Society assesses its income tax positions based on management's evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. The Society uses the prescribed "more likely than not" threshold when making its assessment. There are currently no open federal or state tax years under audit.
